Customer Reviews

This should not be the first book by Baha'u'llah or about the Bahai's a seeker after Truth should read. It assumes you already know the basic tenets of the faith. The style, vocabulary and artistry is that of a high class Persian of the mid-nineteenth century. The translator, his great-grandson, uses a higher standard of English from the mid-twentieth century than is common today. That said, this is THE book of laws and behavior for Bahai's; a must-have for anyone studying the Baha'i Faith in depth.

If you have spiritual questions and would like answers this book may interest you as It is the most holy book to Baha'is, The Baha'i Faith is the newest global religion and a long list of progressive revelations. This book is a must read for anyone looking for spiritual answers.

I haven't finished reading it but it is clear and authentic! It describes what is required of a Baha'í. Thank you for having it available.

Great Book, definitely a Holy Book. A good combination of poetic sentencing, and peaceful but power guidance to the masses. Take heed world.
